Dr Kumar, IAS inaugurates MRPL's 75 skill development programs

As part of 'Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav' MRPL initiated a project of conducting 75 training programmes for school & college children across D.K and Udupi districts. MRPL is conducting the programmes in coordination with Nisarga Foundation and JCI of Mangalore.

The inaugural programme of the event was held at Govt. First Grade College for Women, Balmatta Mangalore. Dr Kumar, IAS, CEO DK ZP Mangalore was the Chief Guest of the programme. He spoke on the occasion and asked students to have right attitude and excel in their life.

Dr Rudolph VJ Noronha, General Manager – CC representing MRPL also spoke on the occasion and encouraged students to pay more attention towards improving their written & oral communication.

Dr, Jagadish Bala, Principal of the college thanked both CEO DK ZP and MRPL for supporting them to have such useful training. He sought further support from MRPL towards building the College into a University.

National level Trainers of JCI, Mr Manjunath D, President JCI Mangalore Zone Arun Peter Pinto were part of the programme. The training was organised on 'Empowering for Better tomorrow'. Around 300 students of the college took benefit of the training.
